GDPR DATA PROTECTION

On May 25, 2018, the General Data Protection Regulation came into effect across European Union (EU) member states, impacting any organization that processes personal data of EU individuals. GDPR represents a strengthening and harmonizing of existing data privacy rights for individuals in the European Union.

C1 is committed to protecting personal data of our EU employees, contractors, customers, and vendors, regardless of where that data is processed. We have an extensive security program and an established set of policies in place across our company departments to ensure that personal data of EU individuals is processed accordingly and fully protected in our systems.

All European user data is stored in an encrypted format on European servers. The information may be accessed by employees of C1 in Canada, Hungary, Nigeria, Philippines, Slovakia, Slovenia, South Africa, Spain, Sweden and the USA. in order to provide services to our European users. When this occurs, information is transmitted in an encrypted format to ensure the highest level of data protection.

The following portions of our privacy policy apply specifically to European users and are designed to comply with GDPR regulations.

Information specifics:

C1 specifically gathers the following information from users:

- IP Addresses, Browser information, User agent information, Cookie information (Persistent and Session Cookies)

Users who create accounts are asked to provide:

- Name, Address, Phone Number, Date of Birth, Email Address, ID Documents for KYC/AML procedures

Additional information that may be requested:

- Cryptocurrency address information
- Additional KYC information
- Banking information

When processing the personal data of EU individuals, we:

- Ensure there is a legitimate business reason to collect the data;
- Ensure we have consent to collect and use the data (where required);
- Limit collection, storage and usage of the data only to the extent for which there is a business reason and consent.

For easier breakdown of how your data is used and why the Company will provide a chart with the breakdown of data collection purposes:

BELOW ARE SOME HIGHLIGHTS OF HOW C1 IS ENSURING COMPLIANCE WITH GDPR:

Data Breach Response Plan: In the event of a data breach that may impact the security of employee, customer, or vendor personal data, we will take steps to notify EU authorities within 72 hours of discovery of the incident.

Data Privacy Impact Assessment: When initiating new projects or products, implementing new software, or onboarding new vendors that may process personal data of EU individuals, we will assess data privacy impact in order to ensure that personal data is adequately protected in any systems or processes controlled by C1.

Data Subject Rights: We understand and respect any member/customer that wishes to access, correct, remove their personal data within our business or close their account with us can do so in writing and request for some or all of their data to be removed. We ask that you email the company directly at support@crowd1.com. We wish to inform all customers/members that there will be specific information required to conduct business with C1 and removal of some or all of your information will limit your use of the site. If you have questions please contact support@crowd1.com.

DATA PROTECTION

We collect, use and store your personal data exclusively within the scope of the provisions of the UAE laws and resolutions regarding data protection. We will inform you about the nature, scope and purpose of data collection and use.

COLLECTION AND PROCESSING OF DATA

Any access to our website and any retrieval of a file deposited on this website will be recorded. The storage serves internal system-related and statistical purposes. Logged: Name of the retrieved file, date and time of the retrieval, transferred data volume, message of successful retrieval, web browser and requesting domain. Additionally, the IP addresses of the requesting computers are logged. Further personal data will only be collected if the user of the website and / or customer makes voluntary information, e.g. in the context of a request or registration or to conclude a contract or through the settings of his browser.

If the user of the website and / or customer wants to prevent the use of cookies, he / she can do this by locally making changes to his / her settings in the Internet browser used on his computer, i.e. the program for opening and displaying Internet pages (e.g. Internet Explorer, Mozilla, Firefox, Opera or Safari).

USE AND DISSEMINATION OF PERSONAL DATA

If the user of our website has provided personally identifiable information, we will only use it to respond to requests from the user of the website and / or customers, to deal with the user of the website and / or customers of closed contracts and for technical administration. We will only pass on or transmit personal data to third parties if this is necessary for the purpose of contract processing or for billing purposes, or if the user of the website and / or customer has previously consented. The user of the website and / or the customer has the right to revoke a consent given with effect for the future at any time.

The deletion of the stored personal data takes place if the user of the website and / or customer revokes the consent to the storage, if their knowledge for the fulfilment of the purpose pursued is no longer required or if their storage is prohibited for other legal reasons. Data for billing purposes and for accounting purposes are not affected by a deletion requirement.

COOKIES

Our website uses cookies. A cookie is a text file that is sent when you visit a website and is temporarily stored on the hard disk of the user of the website and / or customer. If the relevant server of our website is called again by the user of the website and / or customer, the browser of the user of the website and / or of the customer sends back the previously received cookie back to the server. The server can then evaluate the information obtained by this procedure in various ways. Cookies can, for example, control advertising inserts or facilitate navigation on a website.

WHAT COOKIES WILL BE USED ON THE SITE?

The site uses cookies (small files placed on the site user's hard drive) to distinguish you from other users of the site. This helps us provide you with a high-quality experience as you browse the site and also lets us improve the site. We use cookies to analyze the information flow; customize the services, content and advertising; measuring campaign effectiveness; and promote trust and security. We offer certain services that are only available through the use of cookies. In general, there are the following categories of cookies:

1. Strictly necessary cookies

Some cookies are fundamental to the operation of the website. For example, some cookies allow us to identify registered users and make sure they can access the site. If a registered user chooses to disable these cookies, the user may not be able to access all content on the site.

2. Performance cookies

Other cookies can be used to analyze how users use the site and to monitor the performance of the site. This allows us to provide a high-quality experience by adapting the offer and quickly identifying and correcting any problems that arise. For example, performance cookies can be used to keep track of which pages are most popular and to determine why some pages receive error messages.

3. Functionality cookies

Functionality cookies are used to let us remember the users' preferences and tailor the website / app to provide enhanced features.

4. Targeted cookies

We may use cookies to serve users' advertisements that promote C1 products that are relevant to them and their interests. Please note that we do not allow third parties to advertise their own products and services on our website / app.

5. Google Analytics

We use Google Analytics to understand how visitors use our websites and apps. This means that when you visit our site or use one of our mobile applications, your browser automatically sends certain information to Google. This includes, for example, the URL of the page you are visiting and your IP address. You can find details on how Google technology collects and processes data by following this link <https://www.google.com/policies/privacy/partners/>.

If you do not want Google Analytics to be used in your browser, you can install the Google Analytics Browser Extension. You can find out more about Google Analytics and Google's privacy policy here.

Users are always free to reject cookies if their browser allows, although doing so may interfere with their use of the site. Please see detailed information on how to disable cookies here (<http://www.allaboutcookies.org/manage-cookies/>).

Further details on how companies use cookies can be found here (<http://www.allaboutcookies.org/>).

SERVICE PROVIDERS

We may employ third party companies and individuals to facilitate our Service, to provide the Service on our behalf, to perform Service-related services or to assist us in analyzing how our Service is used. By using our Service, you authorize us to transfer your Personal Information to third party companies and individuals only to perform these tasks on our behalf and are obligated not to disclose or use it for any other purpose.

SECURITY

The security of your Personal Information is important to us, but remember that no method of transmission over the Internet, or method of electronic storage is 100% secure. While we strive to use commercially acceptable means to protect your Personal Information, we cannot guarantee its absolute security.

LINKS TO OTHER SITES

Our Service may contain links to other sites that are not operated by us. If you click on a third party link, you will be directed to that third party's site. We strongly advise you to review the Privacy Policy of every site you visit. We have no control over, and assume no responsibility for the content, privacy policies or practices of any third-party sites or services.

CHILDREN'S PRIVACY

Our Service does not address anyone under the age of 18. We do not knowingly collect personally identifiable information from children under 18. If you are a parent or guardian and you are aware that your Child has provided us with Personal Information, please contact us. If we discover that a Child under 18 has provided us with Personal Information, we will delete such information from our servers immediately.

JUDICIAL COMPLIANCE

To ensure compliance with applicable laws and protection of the Company's legitimate business interests and legal rights, including, but not limited to, use in connection with legal claims, compliance, legislative, tax and investigative purposes (including disclosure of such information in connection with litigation or litigation).
